

Q. International air fares are falling and tourism is growing. What are the advantages and disadvantages of increasing tourism activity?

Ans-> For the past few years, numerous masses are travelling to several nations. Due to this phenomenon, the airfares have gone down. People are taking benefits of this scenario by visiting different countries in airplane however, it has few disadvantages which will be mentioned in upcoming paragraphs.

To begin with, tourism is rapidly surging nowadays and there are multifarious advantages linked with it. Primarily, economy is tremendously rising with the help of enlargement in touristry. Secondly, visitors are getting additional knowledge about the culture and tradition by exploring various historical places of other nations. Apart from this, unemployment is also started decreasing owing to this factor. For instance, a report of New York Times newspaper concluded that, jobless people of local areas are becoming tour guides of the archeological ruins of their cities. Consequently, they have started earning money from tourists by describing the information about the history of multifarious locations. Hence, it proved itself as worthwhile for individuals.

On the other hand, there are some deleterious factors connected with this situation. Firstly, aviation activities are causing myriads of health and environmental problems because, the aeroplanes release harmful gases which is not fruitful for humans. Not only this but also, it put catastrophic effects on ozone layer. Furthermore, congestion is also occurred due to tourism. Therefore, at popular tourist spots air and noise pollution becomes extremely serious menace. As a consequence , the level of pollution are escalating day by day .

In conclusion , travelling assists individuals to make new friends and also , to get knowledge about different countries . On the contrary , it is associated with detrimental effects. Before planning trip, every person should need to keep these things in their mind.
